Introduction

WELCOME TO FUKUOKA!

Fukuoka City boasts rich gastronomy offers that are rooted in local traditions. We hope you enjoy the unforgettable gastronomy experience based on this guidebook presented by the Fukuoka OC!

Mizutaki

A hot pot dish that includes chicken and other ingredients with broth extracted from chicken.

Seafood dishes

Thanks to the city's location on the Genkai Sea, there is a wide variety of fresh seafood choices.

Hakata udon

Characterised by the softness of its noodles and the rich flavour of bonito and kelp broth. It is said that the birthplace of udon noodles and soba noodles is Hakata.

Hakata ramen

Ramen with a pork bone-based broth, described as Hakata's soul food. It is also frequently referred to as Tonkotsu ramen which corresponds to the flavour of the broth.

Motsunabe

A hot pot dish that consists mainly of beef or pork offal and vegetables.

Yakitori

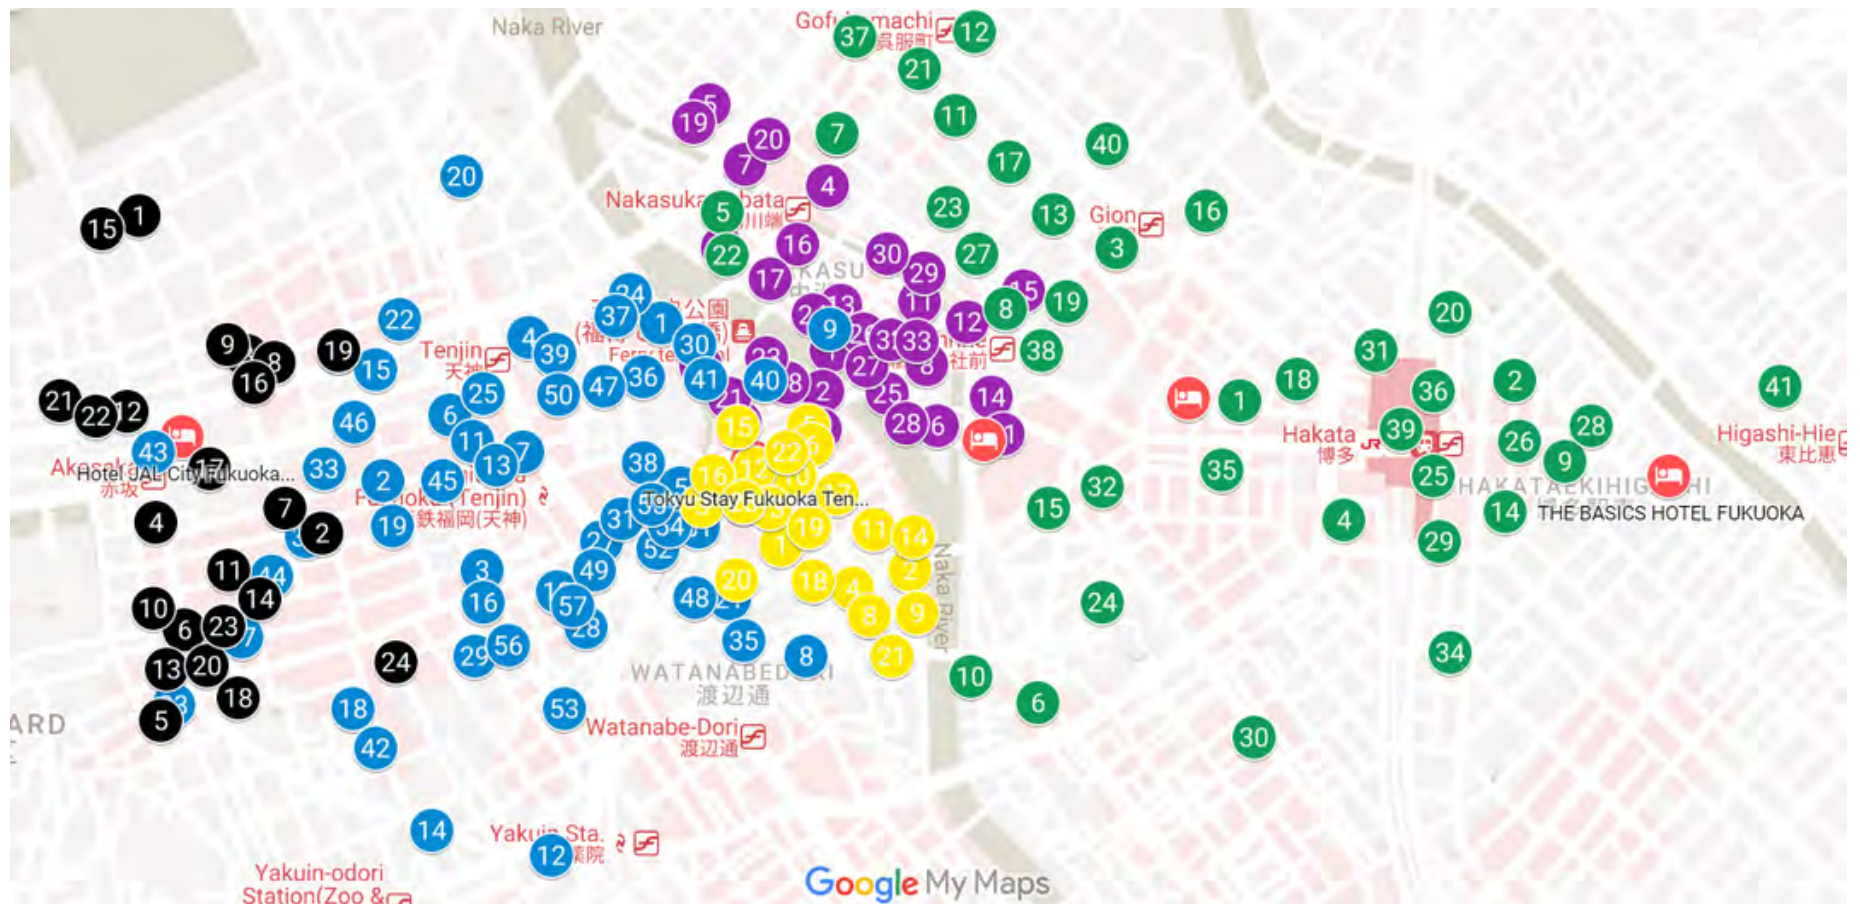

Grilled chicken skewers but beef, pork and seafood skewers are also featured as the same categories of food.
